Writing assignment: This week, I'd like you to watch a South Carolina Supreme Court hearing. The hearings are available at https://www.sccourts.org/scvideo/termSearchVideo.cfm. Look through the list and the brief descriptions and pick one you find interesting. Please select a hearing that is held in the actual courtroom, not a virtual hearing. After you watch the hearing, I'd like you to write a short paper. It needs to be the equivalent of a page and a half long. The first paragraph should be short and identify which hearing you watched and just be a short description of the subject matter of the hearing. The remainder of the paper should focus on your reaction to the hearing itself. How did it compare to your expectations? Did anything about the hearing surprise you? Please note, I expect your papers to be well written and use correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.
